This is a letter in which I want to explain how God is transforming my life, because of my attendance in the group, Fellowship of Catholic Christian Women

When I arrived at this community I was carrying much sadness and depression to the point that I felt there was no reason to fight for anything or anyone.

One day my daughter told me that I needed to get a job or do something; that I was too young for her to take care of me and my son. For this reason, I went back to school (ESL). There I met a good person who invited me to attend a group of women that met every Monday. “Women walking together for Spiritual growth”.

The group is the FCCM at St. Kateri Tekakwitha, Banning, CA.

Little by little by listening to the Word of God, by learning and sharing the faith, I am letting go of the baggage that I carried on my back.

The most important thing that I have learned is to trust in the mercy of God. And that He will never give us more than we can handle.

In reality, I didn't notice when the change in me came about. It was the women around me that noticed the change in my life. I now trust in God and I know that, with His help, I will move on. He has not let go of my hand and He always provides what is necessary to live; and to share with others what He has done for me, my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
