The FCCW has helped me grow so much, not just in knowing more about my faith, but in my desire to want to know more.

It has given me a peace that I almost can't explain. It has also given me friendships that are so uplifting and holy and will always be cherished.

It has given me the courage to deal with problems and a love for our Lord that I never knew.

Since I joined FCCW, I have become so much more aware of the need and love of Christ in other women's lives. We carry so many crosses. I have spent more "alone" time with Christ than ever before. I find myself searching for ways and time to give him glory, praise and thanksgiving. I am learning to trust in him more and trying to let go of the control I think I have over things in my life. Thank you Lord Jesus for calling me to this fellowship!

Through FCCW I have a more intimate experience with Jesus because I get to be with women who love Him and share that love and experiences with one another. I have learned how to hear from God more effectively and that I am not the only one going through hard times. My favorite parts of our meetings are when we each get to share our reflections and our own experiences as women of God.

I feel accepted and comfortable. The books we have been studying are very good and easy to follow. I learn so much about how important our roles as women, wives, and mothers are in our lives and how this has always been the same for women in the bible.
